TO NIGHTS BATTLE

This evening Oscar Gardner and Jerry Marshall, heroes of many a warm battle in the steto arena, meet before the Bridgeport Athletic Club, for twenty rounds or more, and the large audience anticipated will see a stubborn contest. Neither man needs introduction to lovers of boxing, and while the betting odds favors Gardner, the dusky Australian has many ardent supporters.

The contest begins at 9:45 o'clock, and the matchmaker John Murphy will be referee. Street cars on both lines will be on hand after the contest. The club has arranged a good entertainment, which begins at 8:30 o'clock. Hackett's band will render several selections, and the first preliminary will be between two colored youths in barrels, a turn which caused so much laughter at the Metropolitan recently. Preceding the main bout, Eddie Gardner and Chippy Chapman will spar five rounds, and as the latter is the best local man at the weight, a good scrappy bout is assured.

Gardner and Marshall weigh in this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The articles call for 125 pounds, give or take two pounds, and both men will likely make the minimum. It is the general impression that the "Omaha Kid" will add another feather to his cap, the question most propounded being, "How many rounds?" One bet was made that Marshall wouldn't last twenty rounds, while bets above that number of rounds have been offered on Gardner with no takers. Marshall, on form, and judged by his present good condition, stands ready to give Oscar the stiffest argument he has met locally unless it be "Gene Bezenah." He is a great jabber, good at long range, and a ring general who will take no risks, nor miss any opportunity to get his body out of the way of Gardner's short arm punches, but it will keep him busy to keep his body out of the road. Gardner, however, is not invincible, and he realizes he has tough proposition on hand, and the man who expects a remarkably short contest is due to be fooled. Marshall is not put out easily, as his record will show, and Gardner is known for putting his man out in short order, hence the audience is certain of getting its fill.

In yesterday's Pittsburgh Post, Tobe McCurry, manager of Jack McClelland, states that he will be at Bridgeport tonight to challenge Oscar Gardner and accept the $500 purse offered by the Metropolitan club for Gardner and McClelland. Provided, however, mind you, that the Mansfield club doesn't offer a similar purse for Yock Henniger and McClelland.

At Salem on Saturday the game was forfeited to Salem 9 to 0 in the first inning. Salem went out in order. Wheeling came to bat and Wilson hit to Harper. Pritchard drew a base on balls. Egbert hit safely. Russell sent one fast to left, over third base, which Umpire Hambach declared foul. Captain Egbert objected and was ordered to the bench. He refused, and the umpire sent the game as started. The game went on as an exhibition contest. Score:

BASE BALL COMMENT.

The Wheeling and Zanesville clubs of the Ohio league meet in the first game of a series of three games this afternoon at the Island ball park, and the bare announcement that these ancient enemies meet again on the diamond ought to draw a record-breaking audience. Not since the days of '88 have Wheeling and Zanesville been in the same league. Formerly the clubs were the most violent of enemies, and there is no love lost between the present teams. "Parson" Nicholson, an old Tri-state league favorite, is on the Zanesville team, and holds down second base.

Starr has signed Short-stop Hartzell and Pitcher Harper, of the Salems. This was made possible by the disintegration of most of the Ohio league clubs, Salem among them. These players are from the Southern league and were entirely too fast for their fellow players of the Salems. It is said Whisen and Minton will be released. The team is now very fast and with the addition of two or three strong players is strong enough to tackle anything in the Inter-state. Since the Ohio league has practically gone under, Wheeling fans are hoping there will be an opening in the Inter-state for Wheeling soon.

Canton ministers have succeeded in putting an end to Sunday ball at Myer's Lake, and Massillon is the only city in the Ohio league where Sunday ball is permitted. Local ministers once attempted to prevent Sunday playing, but failed. They may take courage by the success in Canton, however, and begin anew. The Massillon team, which was reorganized Thursday, is talking of withdrawing from the league and playing independently.

The Ohio league is practically out of existence. The guarantee money has been withdrawn from the treasury by the respective teams, and the schedule abandoned. The teams will continue to play, however, for some time.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Haps and Mishaps in the Thriving City Across the River.

Will Moore, while intoxicated at Lutz's saloon, on Second street, Saturday night, threw a beer glass at Frank Curtis and inflicted several severe wounds. Curtis was immediately taken to a physician, who found several stitches were necessary to close the wounds. Moore was arrested early this morning on a warrant sworn out by Curtis.

Mrs. Florence Richards, of Columbus, who comes here in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League, delivered two lectures at the M. E. church yesterday. She is a very interesting talker, and pleases her audiences. She will lecture at the U. P. church to-night and to-morrow night, at 8 o'clock, and with these two addresses will close her engagement in this city.

Both the Aetna-Standard and the Laughlin mills are experiencing much difficulty in securing enough help to carry on their work properly in every department. A number of young boys have taken positions until school opens again in the fall.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Hupp, aged eighty-one, who died Saturday afternoon, will take place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Ulrich, of Broadway, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment at Caldwell's Run.

The stockholders of the Locust Point tin mill, largely composed of Martin's Ferry glassworkers, held a meeting at the Windsor Hotel, in Wheeling, yesterday afternoon.

As the new council has now settled down to work, it is sincerely hoped that the question of a new city building will be one of the early matters brought up.

The West Virginia glass factory will be idle this week, and possibly longer, on account of the dullness of the glass trade.

Miss Annie Lewis, of Pittsburgh, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Neely, on Pearl street.

The Presbyterian Sunday school will picnic at Wheeling Park Thursday, June 16.

Misses Sallie and Mary McCleary spent Sunday with Tiltonville friends.

J. B. Montgomery and family spent Sunday with friends at Portland.

Miss Bess Griffith is the guest of Steubenville friends and relatives.

Clem McCabe, of Dillonvale, spent Sunday with relatives here.

George Kellar is able to be out after a few days' illness.

The C. & P. freight car will be in the city Wednesday.

ONE FACT

Overweighs a Thousand Claims—It's Fact We Give You, Backed by Wheeling Proof.

Facts are what we want. An opinion won't do. Opinions differ. It is hard to pick the correct one. Even doctors disagree. You have a backache? One friend tells you to use plasters; They will cure the backache—that's this opinion.

Another recommends a liniment. You follow the advice of one—perhaps both.

But are you cured? The ache perhaps leaves for a time, But it comes back. The fact is you don't reach the cause. Backache means kidney ache. Go for the kidneys and the backache goes.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys. That's why they cure the backache. This is a fact—it can be proven. Wheeling people say so—here's one: Mr. R. M. Smith, of No. 2133 Market Street, says: "I had backache on and off for six years and it grew worse steadily. The trouble I think, was first brought on by a fall I had while working at my trade as a carpenter, and a slight cold or the least exposure all ways produced an attack. In time the secretions from the kidneys became irregular and I suffered a great deal from spells of dizziness, so bad often, that when walking on the street I would nearly fall over. I used porous plasters, but as they did me no good, I gave up their use. I also used a great deal of different kinds of medicine, but the relief, if any, was only temporary. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I was so bad I could not walk up town after them, so I took a car to the Logan Drug Co.'s store and got a box. I never had anything act so promptly or do me such positive relief as did Doan's Kidney Pills and I can conscientiously recommend them as the very best remedy I ever found for any form of kidney trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. By mail on receipt of price, by Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
